HAVAS HOUSE TO LAUNCH NOTABLE, A PUBLICATION HIGHLIGHTING THE ENTREPRENEURS AND LEADERS SHAPING SOUTH FLORIDA

*Focus on the Heart of Business: Charitable Initiatives and Community Involvement
Among Miami's Business Owners*

MIAMI, September 23, 2021 – Havas House, a global custom media, content, and publishing company, announced the development of Notable, a print and digital publication set to launch December 2021. Showcasing the area's burgeoning and innovative business community, the publication will highlight the indomitable spirit and strength South Floridians and recent transplants bring to the workforce. Beyond business success, Notable will also shine a light on how these entrepreneurs continually give back and support the next generation of business leaders.

Created with the support of the South Florida Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, Notable will also provide these professionals with practical business advice and guidance. Each issue will feature a panel of experts that will advise on trending topics, contribute articles, and offer recommendations and tips for business owners.

"Miami's workforce is unlike any other in the country thanks to its unique mix of cultures and widely varied set of industry expertise," explains Marisa Beazel, president and publisher, Havas House. "The fact that our community is booming with talent and innovation — making our hometown a top destination for start-ups, technology firms, and more — is no accident. And Notable will showcase it all."

Notable will be available online and will be distributed throughout South Florida businesses, universities, chambers of commerce, consular corps, trade organizations, municipalities, elected officials' offices, and more.
